Part two: Possessive pronouns

Apostrophes can be used to show ownership or belonging.

*Add 's to a singular noun to make it a possessive noun.

e.g. I like Kate's shoes.

Do you know James's brother?

*Add ' to the end of plural nouns that end in -s.

e.g. These are my sisters' dolls.

(The dolls belong to my sisters)

They are my friends' pencils.

(The pencils belong to my friends)

Complete each sentence to show ownership of the noun in brackets

This is _____ textbook. (Emma)

That _____ shirt is pink. (girl)

That _____ feathers are blue. (bird)

Do you know which one is _____ jacket? (Olivia)

The _____ toy is dirty. (dog)

Correct the text below by adding or removing apostrophes.

On Sunday, Anthony went over to Jonhs house to play basketball. They played a game of one-on-one. At the end of the game, Anthonys score was six, but Johns score was eight. John was the winner. After the game, the boy's went in side to have some snacks' and watch television. They played with John's new puppy. The puppys name is Fido. Fido's ears are long and floppy and he wag's his tail non-stop! The boy's had a great day. Johns mum is going to ask Anthonys mum if Anthony can come over again next weekend.
