CHARITY WEEK

We have been blown away with your generosity on our charity week. From the fabulous cakes that you have sent in, the mountains of loose change, and some really amazing sponsorship funds for the Race for Life, we can only thank you so much on behalf of all the charities involved.

Once our final numbers are counted, we will update you on how much has been raised for the three charities.

PARKLANDS NURSERY

Sarah Brooking, the Head of Parklands Nursery has asked me to share some information with you: Sarah will be retiring as Head at the end of the summer, but will return as Executive Assistant Head until Easter.

In September, Parklands Nursery School and Playgroup will be forming a collaboration with Wellingborough Federation. The Wellingborough Federation comprises of Highfields Nursery and Croylands Nursery in Wellingborough, so there are exciting changes on the way.

Parklands Nursery will function as usual throughout these changes – there will be no adverse impact on the children, and as Sarah will remain as part of the team until next Easter, the transition will be smooth.

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to pop in and see Sarah.

CLASS PHOTOS

Just a reminder that the photographer will be in to take the class photos on 11th June.

WHAT A TERM!

This term has been incredibly short and incredibly busy! I want to take a moment to say how proud we are of our children in Years 6 & 2, who have been undergoing their national statutory assessments. They have all shown resilience, determination and perseverance - what fabulous children they all are!

As we move into our final term of the academic year, I would like to thank you all for the support you have shown myself and the team over the last year. Working together is what will make our school continue to build and develop.

We have a busy term after the break, with Sports Days (and lots of additional sporting activities), the Y6 residential, Year 1 statutory Phonics screening, and not forgetting, the PTA Summer Fete, which looks set to be a very special event. Have a wonderful half term break, and we will see you again in June!
