Dear Parents or Carers,

World Book Day

On Thursday 5th March, we will celebrate World Book Day. The theme for Parklands this year is Where's Wally – a favourite for many of our children (and adults!)- and the children are invited to come to school dressed as one of the Where's Wally characters (or another book character if they would prefer).

We are fortunate enough to have a local author, Monica Withrington visit us for an assembly who'll be sharing her inspirations as an author. If your child is interested in purchasing any of her books from Amazon ahead of the visit, she is offering to sign them on World Book Day.

Throughout the day, the children will be taking part in immersive reading experiences where they might focus on a class book they are enjoying, or a new book, including taking part in an inter-class Where's Wally treasure hunt!

In the afternoon, parents, or any other adult your child may like to invite, are welcome to join us for your child's 'reading for pleasure' time from 2.30pm.

We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible (in Where's Wally costumes or not).

Thank you for your continued support,

Georgie Lewis
