Harvest

A HUGE thank you to everyone who has donated towards the Harvest collection, which will help support local vulnerable adults and families. We really do appreciate your kind generosity towards our local community.

Writing and reading awards

We were so proud of all of all of the wonderful children who received a reading or writing award this week. Well done and congratulations to those children who has shown incredible determination and effort in tehri reading and writing this term!

Friends of Parklands

The children had an amazing time at the Halloween disco this week! A big thank you to our Parent and teacher association – the Friends of Parklands who organised this super event. We are still looking for lots of parents who can help to join this amazing group to continue organising Please follow us on Friends of Parklands Primary school facebook page

Site safety

A polite reminder that children in reception up to Year 4 must be supervised on the playground during morning drop off. Children in year 5 and 6 can have parental permission to walk to / from school alone.
